

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, the Alabama Public Health Association, Inc., aspires to be a recognized leader and key resource on public health issues and policies in Alabama while also a clearinghouse for public health education with a broad and diverse membership of citizens and organizations; and

WHEREAS, the Alabama Public Health Association strives to promote the education of its members together with Alabama citizens on public health issues; and

WHEREAS, the 63rd Annual Alabama Public Health Association Annual Health Education Conference will be held April 3 through April 5, 2019, at the Montgomery Marriott Prattville Hotel and Conference Center at Capitol Hill during National Public Health Week; and

WHEREAS, this year's conference theme is "The Changing Tides of Public Health," where a vast spectrum of speakers from around the state and nation will address conference attendees on a variety of public health topics; and

WHEREAS, everyone deserves to live a long, healthy life in a safe environment free of preventable disease and disability; and

WHEREAS, National Public Health Week 2019 has as its theme "Creating the Healthiest Nation: For Science. For Action. For Health" to help reach the goal of making the United States of America the healthiest nation in one generation – by the year 2030;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim April 1 through April 7, 2019, as in the State of Alabama.

Public Health Week

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 22nd day of February 2019.

Kay Ivey
