

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, a cancer survivor is defined as anyone living with a history of cancer – from the moment of diagnosis through the remainder of life. There are nearly 14 million cancer survivors in America; and

WHEREAS, with more than 1.6 million new cancer cases being diagnosed in the United States this year, increased access to quality cancer care and screening and prevention, especially among minorities and the medically underserved, must be a top priority in the community; and

WHEREAS, the state of Alabama has an active, productive cancer survivor population; and

WHEREAS, hundreds of communities will be celebrating life on Sunday June 29, 2019; and

WHEREAS, on behalf of the people of Alabama, I salute all cancer survivors and those who support them;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim June 29, 2019, as

Cancer Survivors Day in the state of Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 11th day of June 2019.

Kay Ivey
