

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, Patricia Barnes a.k.a. Sister Schubert, grew up in Troy, Alabama, learning the technique for baking a perfect dinner roll from her grandmother; and

WHEREAS, Sister Schubert's story began in 1989, when Patricia baked 20 pans of her grandmother's dinner rolls for her church's holiday frozen food fair, quickly selling out; and

WHEREAS, in 1992, Sister Schubert's Homemade Rolls, Inc. began and by 1998 was rolling out over 1 million dinner rolls per day; and

WHEREAS, after the closure of one of their ovens for needed repairs, during the holidays, the employees came together to perform "Share the Warmth"-making blankets for nursing homes, displaced children and rescue animals, assembled bikes for children, collected food for local food pantries and much more; and

WHEREAS, Sister Schubert's Homemade Rolls, Inc., located in Crenshaw County, currently employs 258 people and continues to exemplify the mission of family, philanthropy, and well-made dinner rolls;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim August 26, 2019, as in the state of Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 22nd day of August 2019.
