

STATE OF ALABAMA
PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, on September 14, 2020, I proclaimed the existence of a state of emergency based on the imminent threat of Tropical Storm Sally, which later strengthened into Hurricane Sally and made landfall in Baldwin County;

WHEREAS that initial proclamation and a subsequent supplemental proclamation I issued later that day included provisions to assist the people of Alabama prepare for, mitigate, and recover from the anticipated impacts of Hurricane Sally;

WHEREAS those provisions included, among other provisions, an order, rule, or regulation closing all beaches effective September 14, 2020, at 3:00 p.m.; and

WHEREAS the State of Alabama is now recovering from the devastation caused by Hurricane Sally and the closure of beaches is no longer necessary to assist in preparing for, mitigating, or recovering from the impacts of Hurricane Sally;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of the State of Alabama, pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Alabama Emergency Management Act of 1955, as amended, Ala. Code §§ 31-9-1 et seq., do hereby proclaim the existence of conditions that warrant implementation of additional extraordinary measures and relief during the state of emergency now in effect. I therefore proclaim and direct the following:

I. Beach Closures

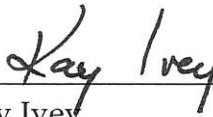

Effective on Friday, October 2, 2020, at 6:00 a.m., the beach closure provision contained in section 1 of my first supplemental emergency proclamation dated September 14, 2020, is hereby rescinded.

FURTHER, to the extent a provision in this supplemental proclamation conflicts with any provision of state law, that law is hereby suspended for the duration of this state of emergency, and this proclamation shall control.

FURTHER, I declare that this proclamation, and all subsequent orders, laws, rules, or regulations issued pursuant hereto, shall remain in full force and effect for the duration of this state of emergency, except as otherwise expressly specified.

IN WITNESS, WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal to be affixed by the Secretary of State at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on this the 1st day of October 2020.

Kay Ivey
Governor
