

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, Turner Syndrome (TS) is a non-inheritable chromosomal disorder that affects one in 2,500 live female births; and

WHEREAS, earlier diagnosis will help these girls and women get a complete cardiac screening; and

WHEREAS, risk for acute aortic dissection is increased by more than 100-fold in young and middle-aged women with TS; and

WHEREAS, early Diagnosis facilitates prevention or remediation of growth failure, hearing problems and learning difficulties; and

WHEREAS, individuals with TS have an increased risk of non-verbal learning disorder (NLD) and in school and work, these impairments can cause problems in math, visuospatial skills, executive function skills and job retention; and

WHEREAS, a disproportionately small amount of funding is available for Turner syndrome research and support; and

WHEREAS, with the help of medical specialists and a good social support system, a woman with TS can live a happy, healthy life; and

WHEREAS, the establishment of TS Awareness Month will also provide the opportunity to share experience and information with the public and the media, to raise public awareness about Turner syndrome;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim February 2021, as in the state of Alabama.

TS Awareness Month

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 1st day of February 2021.

Kay Ivey
