

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, the Bible frequently mentions to give honor where it is due; and

WHEREAS, intercessors have played a vital role in changing our nation through the wonderful power of prayer; and

WHEREAS, the Bible says if we will humble ourselves and pray that God will heal our land; and

WHEREAS, intercessors have been called to pray for our nation in times of need and during disasters; and

WHEREAS, intercessors have always been available to pray for our nation, state and counties, whenever needed; and

WHEREAS, the Bible says if you call on God, He will answer you; and

WHEREAS, National Intercessors Day will be honored by the country, state and nation;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim October 2, 2021, as

National Intercessors Day

in the state of Alabama and encourage all citizens to join recognizing and honoring our intercessors for their role in shaping the prosperity and wellbeing of our great state.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 22nd day of September 2021.
