

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, Alabama's public education system plays a vital role in the current and future prosperity of our state; and

WHEREAS, by working to equip our state's children with both practical skills and broader intellectual abilities, Alabama's educators are ensuring that our future workforce, parents and leaders are prepared for the challenges of tomorrow; and

WHEREAS, those that help cultivate the intellectual minds and personal work ethics of Alabama's children are too often the unsung heroes for families across our state; and

WHEREAS, despite unforeseen and exhausting challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic, teachers across the great state of Alabama have continued to rise to the occasion and adapt to an ever-changing world; and

WHEREAS, while adapting to circumstances beyond their control, Alabama teachers have remained relentless in providing our state's children with high-quality educational opportunities;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim November 15 through 21, 2021, as

and encourage Alabamians to express their gratitude for the hard work and dedication of our teachers and their unrelenting dedication to their life calling.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 15th day of November 2021.

Kay Ivey
