RE: Flags Lowered for National Pearl Harbor Remembrance Day

In accordance with the presidential proclamation, I am directing flags to be displayed at half-staff on Tuesday, December 7, 2021, to honor and remember our military members who heroically fought at Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941. Eighty years ago, Japanese fighter planes attacked the United States Naval Base at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, destroying much of our Pacific Fleet and killing more than 2,400 Americans. May we never forget their sacrifice for our country.

The flags should remain lowered at half-staff for the entire day on Tuesday, December 7, 2021.
