

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, Public Service Recognition Week provides an opportunity to recognize and promote the important contributions of public servants and to honor the diverse men and women who meet the needs of the United States and the state of Alabama through work at all levels of government and as members of the uniformed services; and

WHEREAS, thousands of loyal and dedicated federal, state and local government employees serve Alabama in many essential areas, including supporting families, improving our schools, boosting public health, keeping our roads safe, protecting and preserving wildlife and our natural beauty, expanding economic development, and a host of other services that make Alabama a wonderful place to live, work and raise a family; and

WHEREAS, public service is a noble calling and these employees represent Alabama with a commitment to the highest levels of integrity, performance, customer service and efficiency; and

WHEREAS, the ability of all levels of government to be responsive, innovative and effective depends on the outstanding performance of dedicated public servants; and

WHEREAS, public servants have much to offer, as demonstrated by their expertise and innovative ideas, and they serve as mentors and leaders by passing on institutional knowledge to train the next generation of public servants; and

WHEREAS, the state of Alabama is proud to recognize the men and women who make a difference in our daily lives through their work and express appreciation to them this week and throughout the year;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim the week of May 1 through May 7, 2022, as
