

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, from its creation in 1992, the United States Minority Contractors Association (USMCA) faithfully pursued sustainable excellence in the build industry supporting minority contractors to be successful in various fields; and

WHEREAS, the USMCA provides unique professional, educational, technical professional consulting to both its members and private and public entities; and

WHEREAS, the USMCA has established itself in eighteen states across America with over 225 firms, plus 12 separate divisions internally to accommodate the full spectrum of professional entrepreneurs, including its STEM Education Foundation serving underrepresented minority students in the STEM fields; and

WHEREAS, the USMCA Board of Directors has established a new state chapter within the city of Montgomery, Alabama effective Tuesday, May 3, 2022 during an official launch program, assembling leaders in the build industry and public servants;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim May 3, 2022, as

Minority Contractors Day in the state of Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 27th day of April 2022.

Kay Ivey
