

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, XLH affects about one in 20,000 newborns according to the National Institutes of Health (NIH); and

WHEREAS, the effects of the disease cause serious and debilitating symptoms that have a major impact on the lives of those people who suffer from XLH, as well as their families; and

WHEREAS, patients affected by XLH and their families often encounter a variety of problems outside the illness itself, such difficulty in obtaining accurate and timely diagnoses, finding effective treatment options and or being able to afford the appropriate treatment; and

WHEREAS, XLH is not a curable disease, however, dedicated researchers around the world continue their efforts to understand how genetic mutations work with the hope that a cure will be found one day; and

WHEREAS, educational programs must be public and constant so that new parents and health providers can be exposed to the most up-to-date information;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim June 23, 2022, as

XLH Awareness Day

in the state of Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 21st day of April 2022.

Kay Ivey
