

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, the state of Alabama supports the concept of the student athlete and the benefits that athletic programs provide the youth of our state; and

WHEREAS, Montgomery will serve as the host city for the 27th annual Alabama All-Star Sports Week, which will be held from July 17th to 21st 2023; and

WHEREAS, the Alabama All-Star Sports Week will feature nine all-star games in seven sports, including boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, football, baseball, cross country and volleyball; and

WHEREAS, the Alabama High School Athletic Association (AHSAA) Summer Conference will be offered during the week to not only the coaches of the previously mentioned sports, but track and field, cheerleading, wrestling, bowling and golf; and

WHEREAS, the AHSAA Summer Conference will also be offered to athletic directors, principals and contest officials to enhance instructional and professional development; and

WHEREAS, more than 350 student-athletes and more than 4,000 coaches, administrators and officials are expected to participate in the week's activities; and

WHEREAS, the activities will culminate in a sports competition between the northern and southern regions of the state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim July 17th through July 21st, 2023, as

Alabama High School All-Star Week

in the state of Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 13th day of June 2023.

Kay Ivey
