

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, October 9, 2023, is the 23rd anniversary of American Indian Heritage Day in the state of Alabama; and

WHEREAS, many Alabamians are of American Indian heritage and have contributed immeasurably to the state's unique diversity through their culture and traditions; and

WHEREAS, Alabama is the home of nine recognized Tribal Governments that are commended for their leadership in economically supporting state tourism, historical preservation and education through Pow Wows, festivals, motorcycle rides and Indian education programs; and

WHEREAS, Alabama wishes to honor Alabama's indigenous people, their contributions to their homeland and for their passion in keeping American Indian culture and history a vibrant part of Alabama's life;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim October 9th, 2023, as

American Indian Heritage

Day

in the state of Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 16th day of August 2023.

Kay Ivey
