

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, residents of assisted living communities are active members of the larger community, offering their knowledge, life experiences and involvement; and

WHEREAS, their past contributions continue to be a vital part of Alabama's rich history and their ongoing participation deepens Alabama's identity; and

WHEREAS, assisted living is a critical long term care option for older adults and individuals with disabilities that fosters choice, dignity and independence; and

WHEREAS, assisted living communities are committed to excellence, innovation and the advancement of person-centered care; and

WHEREAS, in 1995, the National Center for Assisted Living established National Assisted Living Week to honor the contributions of assisted living communities in providing long term care to America's seniors and individuals with disabilities; and

WHEREAS, during this week, assisted living communities across the country are encouraged to organize activities and events which celebrate the dedication of staff, the individuality of residents and the deep connections formed in these settings; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim September 10 through September 16, 2023, as

National Assisted Living Week in the state of Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 11th day of September 2023.

Kay Ivey
