

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, for more than one hundred years, propane has helped individuals across America meet their energy needs; and

WHEREAS, propane is a clean burning, low-carbon fuel that provides critical energy to residential, commercial, industrial, agricultural and fleet customers across Alabama, ensuring that diverse economic sectors can flourish; and

WHEREAS, America is the world's leading propane producer, and Alabama's propane industry employs more than one thousand workers and contributes more than $400 million to Alabama's GDP; and

WHEREAS, propane supports energy security, reliability and resilience, helping consumers meet their unique heating and energy needs while helping us move towards a net-zero future; and

WHEREAS, Alabama joins propane suppliers and consumers in acknowledging the important contributions made by the propane industry in our state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim October 7, 2023, as in the state of Alabama.

National Propane Day

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 28th day of September 2023.

Kay Ivey
