RE: Flags Lowered for Victims of the Lewiston, Maine Shootings

In accordance with the presidential proclamation, I am directing flags be immediately flown at half-staff in remembrance of the lives lost during the senseless acts of violence in Lewiston, Maine on October 25, 2023. During this difficult time, I call upon the people of Alabama to uplift the victims of this tragedy and their families in prayer.

The flags are to be lowered to half-staff immediately until sunset on Monday, October 30, 2023, at which point all flags should be raised back to full staff.
