

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, Pam Huff has dedicated nearly five decades of her life to journalism, bringing news into the homes of Alabamians with integrity and commitment; and

WHEREAS, Pam anchored "The News at 4" and the "News at 5" on ABC 33/40, while also providing special reports on state politics, local government and public education in Alabama; and

WHEREAS, Alabama's first female ever assigned to a prime-time nightly news anchor chair, Pam is an EMMY-award winning journalist and has been recognized for her significant contributions to the southern regional news market; and

WHEREAS, Pam has received recognition and numerous awards from the Associated Press and Radio and Television News Directors Association for her anchoring and reporting work; and

WHEREAS, her distinguished career has not only set a precedent in media but has also been a source of inspiration through her public fight against cancer, encouraging openness and community support in times of personal challenge; and

WHEREAS, her retirement marks the end of an era in Alabama broadcasting and the beginning of new adventures that surely await a woman of her talent and passion;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim May 24, 2024, as

Pam Huff Day

in the state of Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 21st day of May 2024.

Kay Ivey
Kay Ivey, Governor