

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, Distinguished Young Women (DYW) of Alabama is a part of a national scholarship program that promotes and recognizes excellence in leadership, scholarship and talent in young women; and

WHEREAS, DYW is the oldest and largest national scholarship program for high school girls; and

WHEREAS, DYW strives to give every young woman the opportunity to further her education, develop lasting character and prepare for a successful future; and

WHEREAS, in 1963, I was awarded Wilcox County Junior Miss, now known as Distinguished Young Women; and

WHEREAS, I am proud to continue supporting this great program and the many young women who participate; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim January 25, 2025, as

Distinguished Young Women of Alabama Day in the state of Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 24th day of January 2025.
