

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, fire is a serious public safety concern that affects communities across our state, and fire departments throughout Alabama have long dedicated themselves to protecting lives and property through prevention, education and emergency response; and

WHEREAS, fire prevention programs, many with proud traditions spanning generations, serve as an essential part of public safety efforts by educating children, families, businesses and faith communities on the importance of fire safety and preparedness; and

WHEREAS, these programs often include student participation, essay contests, school and church inspections, parades and community-wide events that instill lifelong lessons about fire safety and bring together citizens of all ages; and

WHEREAS, such efforts not only increase public awareness but also foster strong community partnerships, build respect for fire service professionals and inspire future generations to remain vigilant against fire hazards; and

WHEREAS, the dedication of our fire departments and their prevention initiatives have undoubtedly saved lives, reduced the risk of fire-related tragedies and established a tradition of safety education that extends far beyond local communities:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim October 5 through October 11, 2025, as in the state of Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 28th day of August 2025.

Kay Ivey
