

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, throughout the years, men and women within the military have honorably protected our beloved country and deserve our utmost gratitude and respect; and

WHEREAS, unfortunately, many of our nation's heroes struggle with trauma, disabilities, suicide and often are unable to financially care for their needs; and

WHEREAS, Walk Hard was designed by the Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity at Troy University to serve as an annual philanthropic event to raise funds and awareness for wounded veterans, also benefitting Jeep Sullivan's Wounded Warrior Outdoor Adventures, Inc., and

WHEREAS, Walk Hard is a 128.3-mile, six-day hike from Troy, Alabama to Panama City Beach, Florida. This is a trek that will be completed by 44 of the fraternity's brothers; and

WHEREAS, Alpha Tau Omega's unwavering support and hard work to support our country's veterans is admirable and recognized across the state:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim March 13, 2026, as in the state of Alabama.

Walk Hard Day

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 19th day of February 2026.

Kay Ivey

Kay Ivey, Governor