

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, first responders are: Police Departments, Fire Departments and Health Care Providers. Their commitment for continuing education, training and urgency for excellence in making a significant difference in the lives of individuals, families and communities they serve; and

WHEREAS, first responders improve the safety, order and wellness of our society by way of their selfless commitment to serve, protect and care for the public without regard for their own personal safety; and

WHEREAS, their actions preserve our Rule of Law, personal rights, property, homes, businesses and respond to the harshest of personal injury circumstances that challenge them each day; and

WHEREAS, their burden is forceful and continuous, and their understanding of needed resolve and engagement is unwavering to the increasing public demands placed upon them; and

WHEREAS, first responders seek to enhance their strength and awareness for success to the ever-changing cultural struggle and differences through continued training;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim April 7, 2018, as

First Responders Unity Day

in the State of Alabama and urge all citizens to participate in the observance.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 26th day of March 2018.

Kay Ivey
_____
Kay Ivey, Governor