

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, the city of Red Bay, along with the Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association, is presenting the first ever Olan Cunningham Baseball Camp in Alabama on October 28, 2017; and

WHEREAS, Representative Johnny Mack Morrow working with former Kansas City Royals pitcher, Randy McGilberry, is bringing this first ever camp to Alabama in Red Bay. Representative Morrow would like to give a special thanks to Olan Cunningham for all that he has done for the youth of Red Bay and to the Major League Baseball Players who are participating at the camp. Without these men, the realization of this camp would not have been possible; and

WHEREAS, the purpose of the Olan Cunningham Baseball Camp is to provide an opportunity, for boys and girls age six through high school, who normally would not be able to attend such a camp and to continue to grow local youth and high school baseball programs. There are two hundred children from across Franklin, Marion, Colbert and Lauderdale counties participating in this camp; and

WHEREAS, the Governor's Commission on Physical Fitness and Sports along with Red Bay Commission Board Member/Congressional District IV, Rosalyn Fabianke, would like to congratulate Mayor Charlene Fancher, the Red Bay City Council, the City of Red Bay and Red Bay Baseball Coach, Richard Maggerise, along with the Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association for organizing and hosting the first ever Olan Cunningham Baseball Camp;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim October 28, 2017 as

Inaugural Olan Cunningham Baseball

Camp Day

in the State of Alabama as we strive to provide opportunities for all of our youth to play sports, be active and live a healthy lifestyle.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 28th day of October 2017.

Kay Ivey

Kay Ivey, Governor