

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, throughout the history of Alabama, the progress of our state has been closely tied to the progress of our transportation system, and

WHEREAS, as our state grows, so does the need for mobility which has been well served to date by responsive rail, highway, water and air transportation networks, and

WHEREAS, generations of our citizens who have developed and operated these great networks by which we move goods and people today stand high in the ranks of those who have helped make our state great, and

WHEREAS, we look to the transportation professionals of our state with confidence that they will perform as they have in the past and provide improvements that will ensure fast, safe, efficient and convenient transportation; and

WHEREAS, National Transportation Week in Alabama recognizes those men and woman who, night and day, move goods and individuals in our state, and of the importance to each community and its people of our transportation system, and the maintenance of the facilities of the system in the most modern state of adequacy to serve the needs of our state and nation in times of peace and in national defense;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim May 13th through May 19th, 2018, as in the State of Alabama.

National Transportation Week

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 20th day of April 2018.

Kay Ivey
