

Proclamation By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, the Alabama Public Health Association, Inc., aspires to be a recognized leader and key resource on public health issues and policy in Alabama and a clearinghouse for public health education with a broad and diverse membership of citizens and organizations; and

WHEREAS, the Alabama Public Health Association strives to promote the education of its members together with the public on public health issues; and

WHEREAS, the 62nd Annual Alabama Public Health Association Annual Health Education Conference will be held April 4 through April 6, 2018, at the Montgomery Marriott Prattville Hotel and Conference Center at Capitol Hill during National Public Health Week; and

WHEREAS, this year's conference theme is "Navigating the River of Public Health," and a vast cadre of speakers from around the state and nation will address conference attendees on a variety of public health topics; and

WHEREAS, everyone deserves to live a long, healthy life in a safe environment free of preventable disease and disability; and to make this happen, the causes of poor health and disease risk among individuals and within our communities must be addressed; and

WHEREAS, National Public Health Week 2018 has as its theme, "Healthiest Nation 2030" to help realize the goal of making the United States the healthiest nation in one generation—by the year 2030;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim April 2 through April 8, 2018, as in the State of Alabama.

Public Health Week

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 20th day of March 2018.

Kay Ivey
