

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, Terry Kellogg, the Chief Executive Officer of Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Alabama is completing 36 years of service to the company and its customers; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Kellogg has continued a history of leadership at Blue Cross that has earned the company high distinction and recognition including 22 Brand Excellence Awards by the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Association; and

WHEREAS, Blue Cross has institutionalized a culture that emphasizes respect for its customers, acting with integrity and giving back to the community; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Kellogg has embodied the company's commitment to the community by a lifelong commitment of personal service in community and civic affairs in Jefferson County and the State of Alabama; and

WHEREAS, organizations such as the United Way of Central Alabama and the Greater Alabama Council of Boy Scouts of America have benefited from Mr. Kellogg's energetic and compassionate involvement and leadership; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Kellogg, a Kansan by birth, chose to be an Alabamian and with the love and support of his wife Laura, raised their sons and served their community and the State of Alabama with distinction; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim March 27, 2018, as in the State of Alabama in honor of his 36 years of service to Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Alabama.

Terry Kellogg Day

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 19th day of March 2018.

Kay Ivey
Kay Ivey, Governor