

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, we the children of the United States unite as one people in order to preserve, protect, nurture and grow the health of our people, our shared community, and our country; and

WHEREAS, Planned Acts of Kindness is a social responsibility program where each day people around the world wake up, and on their cell phones, their computers and devices, there's a new planned activity that they can do with their family, friends, co-workers and in their community; and

WHEREAS, the goal is to have tens of millions of people doing the same activity on the same day, and unleashing that much powerful, positive energy into world. And because many problems take more than one day to effect change, each month we will establish an education and action campaign on a new Cause of the Month; and

WHEREAS, in December, in conjunction with schools, churches/temples, non-profit organizations, agencies and businesses, Planned Acts of Kindness will provide educational workshops, seminars, events, meetings, activities and programs in the following areas:

- 1) Ethics and Civility;*
- 2) Social Responsibility and Volunteerism;*
- 3) Community Outreach;*
- 4) Global Citizenship; and*

WHEREAS, we call upon people from all nationalities, races, religions, ages, genders, economic and educational levels, and encourage all Alabamians to take a proactive role in exhibiting greater kindness in all aspects of their lives as they strive for the well-being of themselves, their families, their communities, and the future of our country and planet;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim December 2018, as in the State of Alabama.

National Kindness Month

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 15th day of November 2018.

Kay Ivey
