

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, HEAL United, a nonprofit organization founded in Alabama, has made significant contributions to the health of youth across the state through its evidence-based, education programs that equip children with the tools for lifelong wellness; and

WHEREAS, HEAL United's mission to empower students to make healthy choices, build strong character and cultivate personal responsibility has had a transformative impact on academic performance and workforce readiness in schools and communities throughout Alabama; and

WHEREAS, the collaborative efforts of HEAL United and its partners, educators and volunteers have provided students with consistent education in nutrition, physical activity, general wellness and positive decision-making; and

WHEREAS, the state of Alabama recognizes the importance of prioritizing student health and character development as foundational components of long-term academic, professional and personal success; and

WHEREAS, for the past several years, I have proclaimed an annual day as HEAL Day to honor and highlight the work of HEAL United, and to encourage schools and communities to engage in health and wellness education initiatives;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim May 5, 2025, as in the state of Alabama.

HEAL Day

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 23rd day of April 2025.

Kay Ivey

Kay Ivey, Governor