

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, saving and investing are essential to the continued economic growth, stability and financial wellbeing of the citizens of Alabama; and

WHEREAS, Alabamians can be empowered to make well-informed decisions about where and how they invest personal income; and

WHEREAS, the Alabama Securities Commission, the Alabama Council on Economic Education, the Alabama Jumpstart Coalition and other valued partners seek to further Alabama consumers' awareness of the principles of responsible personal financial management; and

WHEREAS, the Alabama Securities Commission, the Alabama Council on Economic Education, the Alabama Jumpstart Coalition and other valued partners continue to encourage and educate residents of Alabama on how to save and invest for the long-term; and

WHEREAS, financial education and a determination to implement solid financial practices are proven methods to help guard individuals from unnecessary financial hardships and continued dependence upon external resources; and

WHEREAS, during Facts on Saving and Investing Campaign Month, financial industry participants, regulators, educators, consumer advocacy groups and members of the media come together to conduct educational events in communities and schools to promote the development and implementation of personal financial skills to help Alabamians build a strong financial future:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim April 2026, as

Facts on Saving and Investing Campaign Month

in the state of Alabama, and I encourage all citizens to participate in educational opportunities that promote responsible financial decision-making and long-term economic well-being.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 19th day of March 2026.

Kay Ivey
_____
Kay Ivey, Governor