

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, the state of Alabama supports the concept of the student-athletes and the benefits that athletic programs provide for the youth of our state; and

WHEREAS, Montgomery will serve as the host city for the 30th annual Alabama All-Star Sports Week, which will be held from July 20 through July 24, 2026; and

WHEREAS, the Alabama All-Star Week will feature nine all-star games in seven sports, including boys and girls basketball, boys and girls soccer, football, baseball, cross country and volleyball; and

WHEREAS, the Alabama High School Athletic Association (AHSAA) Summer Conference will be offered during the week to not only the coaches of the previously mentioned sports, but track and field, cheerleading, wrestling, bowling and golf; and

WHEREAS, the AHSAA Summer Conference will also be offered to athletic directors, principals and contest officials to enhance instructional and professional development; and

WHEREAS, more than 350 student-athletes and more than 4,000 coaches, administrators and officials are expected to participate in the All-Star Week's activities; and

WHEREAS, the activities will culminate in a sports competition between the northern and southern regions of the state:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim July 20 through 24, 2026, as
