

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, agriculture is Alabama's number one industry, contributing significantly to the state's economy while supporting hardworking farmers, fishermen, foresters and families across our great state; and

WHEREAS, Alabama farmers and producers work tirelessly to provide fresh, safe and high-quality products for consumers while preserving our agricultural heritage and strengthening local communities; and

WHEREAS, Sweet Grown Alabama serves as Alabama's agricultural branding program, connecting customers with locally grown and made products while encouraging support for Alabama farmers, ranchers, fishermen and producers; and

WHEREAS, purchasing Alabama-grown products supports local economies, sustains family farms, creates jobs and ensures continued access to fresh food and agricultural products throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, Sweet Grown Alabama Day celebrates the dedication, resilience and contributions of Alabama's agricultural community and encourages all citizens to recognize the importance of supporting local producers year-round; and

WHEREAS, Alabama is proud to honor the individuals and families whose commitment to agriculture helps feed, clothe and sustain our people while preserving the values and traditions that define our state; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim July 25, 2026, as in the state of Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 24th day of June 2026.

Kay Ivey
