

STATE OF ALABAMA
PROCLAMATION
BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS on October 7, 2026, I proclaimed the existence of a state of emergency based on the imminent threat of Tropical Storm Isaias, which strengthened into Hurricane Isaias;

WHEREAS on October 8, 2026, I issued a supplemental proclamation to compel the evacuation of part of the population from the threatened areas; and

WHEREAS, upon the recommendation of officials at the Alabama Emergency Management Agency, and after consultation with other affected persons and entities, it has been determined that conditions warranting a compelled evacuation no longer exist;

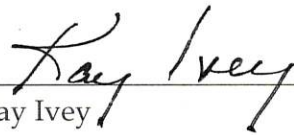

NOW THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of the State of Alabama, pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Alabama Emergency Management Act of 1955, Ala. Code §§ 31-9-1 et seq., do hereby proclaim that the supplemental proclamation issued on October 8, 2026, requiring the mandatory evacuation of coastal tourists and visitors, is rescinded effective immediately. All provisions included in the October 7, 2026, proclamation and October 9, 2026, supplemental proclamation shall remain in full force and effect according to the terms of those proclamations.

FURTHER, to the extent a provision in this supplemental proclamation conflicts with any provision of state law, that law is hereby suspended for the duration of this state of emergency, and this proclamation shall control.

FURTHER, I declare that this proclamation, and all subsequent orders, laws, rules, or regulations issued pursuant hereto, shall remain in full force and effect for the duration of this state of emergency, except as otherwise expressly specified.

IN WITNESS, WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Alabama to be affixed by the Secretary of State at the State Capitol, in the City of Montgomery, on this 10th day of October 2026.

Kay Ivey
Governor
