

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, recognizing October 2, 2026, as Manufacturing Day in Alabama is an effective way to highlight the importance of manufacturing to the economy and draw attention to the many rewarding, high-skilled jobs available in manufacturing; and

WHEREAS, Manufacturing Day is an opportunity to introduce state-of-the-art manufacturing facilities to a new generation of students and future workers; and

WHEREAS, partnerships between manufacturing businesses and educational institutions at all levels are essential in preparing students for manufacturing careers today and in the future; and

WHEREAS, Alabama is fortunate to be the home of many great manufacturing businesses, some of which are world leaders in their respective fields; and

WHEREAS, manufacturers in Alabama account for 16.21 percent of the total output in the state, employing 13.11 percent of the workforce; and

WHEREAS, our manufacturing companies are vitally important to the prosperity of the state of Alabama:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim October 2, 2026, as

Manufacturing Day

in the state of Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 8th day of October 2026.

Kay Ivey

Kay Ivey, Governor
