

Proclamation

By the Governor of Alabama

WHEREAS, public education continues to play a pivotal role in the growth and future prosperity of our state. Alabama's K-12 teachers are essential to our state's continued success; and

WHEREAS, Alabama's teachers are working to ensure all students are achieving academically, prepared for high school graduation and have real opportunities to pursue postsecondary learning; and

WHEREAS, by working to equip our state's children with both practical skills and broader intellectual abilities, Alabama's educators are ensuring that our future workforce, parents and leaders are prepared for the challenges of tomorrow; and

WHEREAS, this year marks the seventh annual Thank Alabama Teachers Month in celebration of our exceptional educators in their outstanding efforts to support student achievement and academic performance; and

WHEREAS, Alabama continues to recruit bright and highly skilled teachers to answer this vital call to positively impact the lives of young people through education. Our teachers are focused on equipping each student with the essential real-world skills needed to advance their academic knowledge and abilities; and

WHEREAS, I thank our exceptional teachers and local school staff statewide for their hard work and dedication; and

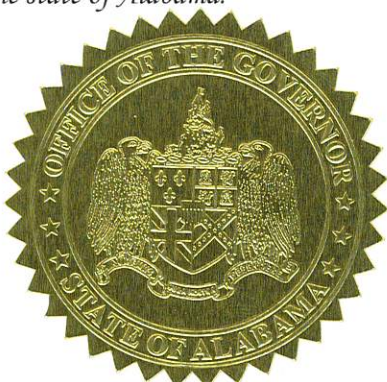

WHEREAS, during this special celebration, every Alabamian and all local communities are encouraged to express their genuine appreciation for our outstanding teachers; and

WHEREAS, teachers across the state of Alabama have continued to rise to the occasion and adapt to an ever-changing world. Alabama teachers have remained relentless in providing our state's children with high-quality educational opportunities:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kay Ivey, Governor of Alabama, do hereby proclaim November 2026, as

Thank Alabama Teachers Month

in the state of Alabama.

Given Under My Hand and the Great Seal of the Office of the Governor at the State Capitol in the City of Montgomery on the 21st day of October 2026.

Kay Ivey
